

We are recruiting

Are you a 18-28 year old, ambitious, self-driven, experienced young professional who is ready for a challenge? If yes, Restless Development Nepal is looking for YOU!!

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

We are recruiting volunteers to support the activities in monitoring and evaluation unit.

We recruit young people and our team will provide training/orientation before the assignment to support us on qualitative data collection (interviews & focus group discussions), quantitative data entry and transcription of qualitative data.

You will have better skills and more experiences that will be helpful in your future career.

Field researchers to carry out interviews and focus group discussions

Location	Restless development working districts
Duration	One to two weeks field work depending on the district per assignment.
Benefits	Stipend on working days. Food, accommodation and travel expenses during the research will be covered by Restless Development.
Skills and Qualifications	Essential <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - At least intermediate level of education or more - Good knowledge of IT, especially Word, Excel and internet - Fluency in English and Nepali with good written & verbal communication skills - Ability to travel regularly to rural areas and spend nights if necessary Desirable <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Having experience and good interview skills - Experience in managing group - Good communicative skill with probing skills to stimulate discussion - Having skill to manage participants who dominate the conversation - Familiarity with sexual and reproductive health issues of Nepal

Qualitative data transcription

Location	Restless Development country office or home based
Duration	Few days to week as per assignment
Benefits	Stipend on working days and lunch
Skills and Qualifications	Essential - At least intermediate level of education or more - Good knowledge of IT, especially Word and Excel - Fluency in English and Nepali with exceptional written and verbal skills Desirable - Experience on literate transcription

Data enumerators

Location	Restless Development country office
Duration	Few days to week as per assignment
Benefits	Stipend on working days and lunch
Skills and Qualifications	Essential - At least intermediate level of education or more - Good knowledge of IT, especially SPSS and Excel Desirable - Fluency in English and Nepali with exceptional written and verbal skills

- If you are interested and meet above criteria, please send your application form no later than 21 February, 2016 to astha@restlessdevelopment.org.